

CENTRAL BOARD MINUTES

April 20, 1943

President MacLeod called the meeting to order, and the minutes were read and approved.

Wise moved that the Board approve the following list of vote counters, as submitted by President MacLeod, for Aber Day elections:

Pat Cohe,	Evie Morris,
Eileen Murphy,	Joe Gans,
Lorraine MacKenzie,	Jack Ferris,
Leona DeCock,	Fred Weber,
Judith Hurley,	Pat Campbell,
Bernice Hollenstainer	Homer Thompson,

and Bill Enke;

and faculty members,

Briggs,	Bischoff,	Wren,
Broman,	Dubisch,	Freeman.

Sandell seconded and the motion was carried.

Wise moved that student members of Central Board--Nadler, Hesser, Bukvich, Wise, Wedin, Gulbrandson and Sandell--take care of the voting tables on Aber Day. Nadler seconded and the motion was carried.

Sandell moved that the Board approved the latest petitions for class and ASMSU offices with the exception of those of Kay Hannan, Laila Strenahan, Jane Hawke and Ann Elliot, who have not met the credit requirements, and those of Pat Petterson and Dorothy Hunt, whose petitions were turned in late. Gulbrandson seconded and the motion was carried.

Wise moved that, in view of the labor shortage this year, candidates for ASMSU and class offices must report to the campus for work on Aber Day. Briggs seconded and the motion was carried.

At the request of Publications Board, Nadler moved that Central Board waive for the duration the requirement that the editor of the Kaimin must have attended Montana State University at least two years and have at least 75 credit hours at the time of his selection. Wise seconded and the motion was carried.

MacLeod called a special meeting for 5 o'clock Thursday, April 22.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
